Rumor Has It That James R. Keene Will Live in England.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Aug. 13 .- According to a report current in Wall street to-day this country is to lose another prominent resident. James R. Keene, the veteran bear, who has won renown in innumerable speculative conflicts, is said to have bought a house in England for the purpose of taking up his abode

The rumor could not be substantiated at Mr. Keene's financial headquarters here.
Talbot J. Taylor, head of the firm of Talbot J. Taylor & Co., is his son-in-law, and has heard nothing of the reported purchase of an English residence. A. K. Taylor, Talbot J. Taylor's brother, said that neither his brother nor he had received any news of it.

of it.
"We should be likely to know about it if any one in this country should," said Mr. Taylor. "Reports of various kinds have come to our ears since Mr. Keene went abroad, about his purchase of a castle in Ireland, a shooting box somewhere else and various celebrated race horses, but we have never heard anything authentic about it at all."

In quarters where the report was credited it was said that Mr. Keene would probably visit this country regularly at certain sea-sons of the year if he should really take up his residence in England, but that his racing interests, like those of Richard Croker, would be chiefly on the other side, where his permanent home would be lo-cated. where his permanent home would be located.

When Mr. Keene left this country a few months ago for Europe on a health trip, accompanied by his physician, Doctor Austin Flint, he gave not the slightest hint that he intended to settle in England.

Rally at Sedalia August 21 to Open | Details of the Political Situation the Democratic Campaign Will Be a Record Breaker.

TWO MONSTER PROCESSIONS. STONE'S PART IN CAMPAIGN.

Stevenson and Dockery Will Speak in the Afternoon and Many Others of Note in the Evening.

The official opening of the campaign, on the part of the Democracy, at Sedalia, August 21, will undoubtedly set the pace for all future gatherings of a political nature in the State this campaign. Chairman Selbert said vesterday that he believed there would be at least 40.000 persons present. The enthusiasm manifested by the Democracy all over the central portion of the State is unprecedented, and if the record for gatherings in this energetic Missouri town are not broken it will be because of very bad weather. Mr. Selbert believes everything will go along smoothly. The State Committee practically has turned the matter of local arrangements over to the people of Sedalia.

It is the intention to have two monster parades. One of these will take place about 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and the other about 7 o'clock at night. The night parade will be a torchlight procession. The Democrats of Sedalia expect to have an organized marching club with one thousand members. Many other clubs from surrounding towns have indicated their expectation to attend the rally.

In the afternoon, at 2 o'clock, or as soon as the parade reaches the Fair Grounds, the speaking will begin.

Adial Stevenson and Mr. Dockery will address the assembled visitors in front of the grand stand. This probably will con-Etitute the exercises of the afternoon. At night, after the tochlight parade, meetings will be held at the opera-house and speakers will be stationed on the court-house steps to address the overflow. John H. Atwood and David Overmyer of Kansas, well known orators, will speak, as will other distinguished visitors, pos-sibly Senator Cockrell and Senator Vest or some of the members of Congress, all of whom have been invited to be present. In 1892 when the campaign gun was fired In 1892 when the campaign gun was fired at Sedaila the crowd was so great that at least a dozen speakers were utilized in order that the visitors might not go away disappointed.

Schedules of the special trains for the Sedalia affair are being sent out as fast as the information is secured at headquarters. Secretary John A. Meyers of the St. Louis County Republican Central Committee yesterday gave out a list of the appointments of Judges and clerks to serve at the nominating primaries, to be held in the county in Tuesday, September 4. They are as following the second of th

ROUNDARIES OF THE DISTRICTS. Confusion Is Caused Unless Maps Are Consulted.

There seems to be considerable confusion as to the boundary lines of the congressional districts in St. Louis. It has not been an easy matter, without a map, to pick out the wards within each district, and a map is wards within each district, and a map is not always convenient.

The Eleventh Ward is in the northern part of the city. The south line of it begins at Carr street and the river; thence along Carr street to Third and Wash streets; along Wash street to Sixteenth and Carr streets; thence on Carr street to Jefferson avenue; thence south on Jefferson avenue; thence south on Jefferson avenue to Franklin avenue; along Franklin and Easton avenues to Ewing avenue; thence south to Delmar and Spring avenues; thence south to Lindell avenue, and west to city limits.

The Twelfth lies between the Tenth and Eleventh Wards. The south line of the The Twelfth lies between the Tenth and Elieventh Wards. The south line of the Twelfth Ward begins at Rutger street and the river, thence along Rutger street to Tenth street; Tenth to Lafayette avenue; Lafayette avenue to Jefferson avenue; along Jefferson avenue to Shenandoah avenue; thence to Grand and Gravols avenues; thence on Gravols avenue to Elchelberger street to the city limits street, to the city limits.

The Tenth District includes the southern end of the city and the counties of Franklin and St. Louis.

MR. BRYAN CONFERS WITH THE LEADERS.

Carefully Gone Over and Plans Revised.

Will Act in an Advisory Capacity to Managers at Headquarters-Davis Denies Rumors -Trouble in Michigan.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Aug. 13 .- William J. Bryan spent the day looking after the routine work ahead of him. This morning he received a few personal and social callers and dictated letters for an hour and a half, and then went to Democratic national headquarters. where he met Chairman Jones, Taggart of Indiana, ex-Governor Altgeld and several more of the big leaders handling the organization work. He spent an hour with them. Mr. Bryan was shown a newspaper story to the effect that Senator Marion Butler is "out of line" with the Democratic party in its national campaign. He said:

"The only information I have about this is from the newspapers, and I have no reason to believe there is anything to the story. That is all I care to say about it." In the afternoon Mr. Bryan held a long conference with Chairman Jones, and Vice Chairman Johnson. They spend several hours daily in going over the country, State by State, in minute detail. Mr. Johnson is a tremendous detail worker, and very systematic, and he brings in a sheet as carefully drawn up as the trial balance of a big commercial house. Mr. Bryan listens intently, asks a few questions and at the end makes suggestions. These suggestions show not only the tremendous extent of Bryan's personal acquaintance and knowledge of local conditions, but the thoroughness with which he has mastered polltics.

Davis Scores Great Britain Webster Davis used torrid talk, left over from last week's hot wave, as he sat in Chairman Johnson's room at national headquarters to-day and denied a report that Oom Paul Kruger gave him $125,000 for the Bryan campaign fund just as he climbed up the gang plank on his way home from South Africa. The late Assistant Secretary of the Interior is a large man and on occasion he can command large language.
"It is a lie, made out of whole cloth, and whoever manufactured it used the whole of the cloth at that," said Mr. Davis. "It is London-made, I understand, and is just the kind of shoddy goods I expect from a nation that will murder women and children and crush out weaker countries solely to get hold and to secure subjects on whom it can unload its cheap products.

supposed that as vice chairman of the National Democratic Committee and member of the Executive Committee he would take a prominent part in managing the campaign at headquarters. Instead it is understood that he will devote a large part of his time traveling throughout the country, examining into the situation in the different States, making a few stump speeches and acting in an advisory capacity to the managers at headquarters.

Ex-Senator W. A. Peffer, who came out for McKinley several weeks ago, has just issued a book of 150 pages on "Americanism and the Philippines," advance sheets of which are on exhibition at Republican national headquarters. Peffer, who has been made the object of more columns of Republican ridicule than any man in public life, is now posing as a Republican pet and is a good object lesson as to the hard-up character of the Republican campaign.

Trouble is brewing in Michigan. Ex-Secretary Alger swears that if Roosevelt is permitted to enter the State he will take it as a personal affront. He holds Roosevelt largely responsible for the publication of the scandais which destroyed his reputation in the War Department and drove him from the Cabinet.

Mr. Bryan closeted himself with a phonograph to-day and delivered over again parts of the speech of acceptance he made at Indianapolis last week. Those sections in which the candiate promised to call an extra session of Congress to deal with the Philippine question, and the closing periods were the pricipal parts of the speech that went into the phonograph. It is expected that Bryan's speech, as ground out by the phonograph, will play an important part in the campaign.

Bryan Returns Home To-Morrow Bryan Returns Home To-Morrow.

This afternoon Mr. Bryan had a conference with a delegation of colored men headed by J. Milton Turner of St. Louis, former Minister to Liberia. They represented that there is much dissatisfaction among the members of their race with the present administration and assured Mr. Bryan that he will receive the votes of many of them. They therefore urged the importance of the organization of Bryan Democratic clubs.

The date for the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan for Lincoln is fixed for Wednesday night at 10 o'clock, They will travel over the Chicago and Rock Island road.

Mr. Bryan's speech before the departure.

travel over the Chicago and Rock Island road.

Mr. Bryan's speech before the Irish societies will be made at Sunnyside Park Wednesday afternoon.

Chairman Park Martin of the Indiana State Central Committee and Mayor Taggart of Indianapolis were in conference today with Chairman Jones of the National Committee and Vice Chairman Johnson.

Mr. Bryan and ex-Governors Altgeld of Illinois and Stone of Missouri also were present. It is expected that Mr. Bryan will make some speeches in Indiana toward the close of the campaign.

JEFFERSON CLUB IS INVITED. Arranges to Go to Sedalia-Speech by President Hawes.

At a meeting of the Jefferson Club last night an invitation from Chairman Seibert of the Democratic State Committee was read, asking the club to participate in the Sedalia meeting on August 21. The invitation was accepted, and a committee of twenty-eight was appointed by President Hawes to arrange for taking a large number of the club members to Sedalia on that date. The committee is composed of Peter Walsh, J. J. Sheehan, John P. Owens, Edward J. Morrissey, Charles J. Denny, Joseph Dieckman, John Sutorius, udge James J. Spaulding, P. R. Flizgibbon, Guy Golterman, John Lewin, W. J. Flynn, Joseph M. Griffin, H. W. Soper, Michael Cullinane, E. A. Noonan, Jr., John C. O'Brien, E. M. Grossman, Charles T. Noland, E. P. O'Fallon, W. F. Scott, P. J. McMahon, Perry McCarthy, Kim Winston, Phil Dwyer, W. H. Missick and Ben F. Clark. Mr. Clark was made chalrman of the committee. Later in the evening he delivered a ringing Democratic speech, which was frequently cheered. He spoke of Joe Flory's record and promised some interesting disclosures later on.

President Harry B. Hawes then delivered a short address, in which he paid his respects to the obstreperous element in the club in no uncertain terms. He denied that the transit company, or any other croporation, had contributed anything to the club. He said the hanging of men read, asking the club to participate in

Set-To Between Attorney Kromch and Her Brother Followed.

Attorney H. S. Kromch of St. Louis and Otls Amons of Fairfield, Wayne County, Ill., came to blows in the former's office, at No. 105 North Eighth street, yesterday. As a result of the encounter Amons nurses a broken nose.

Miss Judith Amons, a sister of Otis, Is stenographer for Attorney Kromch. Her brother called to have her sign a deed to certain property in Wayne County, Illinois. Kromch advised her not to do it. An altercation arose between the men. Kromch declares Amons threatened to shoot, so he dealt him a blow between the eyes, felling him and breaking his nose. Amons went to the City Dispensary, where his injury was dressed by Doctor Vogel. Afterwards he was taken to the Four Courts and held until the case could be investigated.

Kromch said: "I hit Amons because I thought he might shoot me. He wanted his sister to sign certain papers and I advised her not to do so. He became angry and threatened to shoot me. When he put his hand to his hip I hit him as hard as I could. He fell, and that ended it. The whole trouble grew out of a business matter in which I advised his sister against his wishes."

Miss Amons was very much distressed clares Amons threatened to shoot, so he Miss Amons was very much distressed over the affair, and manifested great anxiety to know the extent of her brother's injury.

SMOKER AND BANQUET.

A hanquet and smoker was given last night by the old Second Section of Battery A at Masonic Temple, Seventh and Market streets. The occasion of the affair was to celebrate the second anniversary of the day on which the crack artillery organization of Missouri "marched up the hill and then marched down again" near Guyama, Porto Rico, the same being the nearest it approached to battle with the Spaniards. proached to battle with the Spaniards.

There were other members of the battery present beside the "Highbinders," as the Second Section is generally known. The long banquet table, which groaned beneath the weight of every delicacy which the season afforded, was set for seventy guests, and but few seats were vacant.

In the course of the evening a permanent civil organization was formed. The only qualifications for eligibility to the new order are that the applicant had served with the battery in Porto Rico. Sergeant T. J. Williams was elected permanent chairman of the meeting, with Sergeants Lightholder and Gloire as secretary and treasurer rewilliams was elected permanent chairman of the meeting, with Sergeants Lightholder and Gloire as secretary and treasurer respectively. A committee consisting of the officers and two additional members was appointed to draft by-laws and form a general plan for the new organization.

Gus Buder acted as toastmaster for the evening. After a clever address in which he welcomed the men in the name of the "Highbinders," he proposed a toast to the members living and departed of Battery A. This was drunk with avidity and given three resounding cheers. The speeches which followed were alternated with music furnished by a quartet and string orchestra. The speakers were L. Gloire, T. B. Post Office Department Officials to Visit St. Louis.

Washington, Aug. 13.-The Postmaster

General has issued an order directing a general investigation as to the cost of collection, operating and atility of all pneumatic systems for transmission of mails. This investigation is in accordance with the requirements of the last postal appropriation act, and is designed to enable Congress to determine whether the penumatic tube service should be owned, leased, extended or discontinued by the Government, and also to determine the cost at which the Government may acquire existing plants or necessary natents. cost at which the Government may acquire existing plants or necessary patents.

There is an appropriation of $10,000 for the investigation, which will be conducted in a few of the principal cities, including possibly New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, St. Louis, San Francisco and New Orleans.

The cities will be decided on later, as will the names of the committee which will direct the investigation.

In each of the cities to be selected the Postmaster, assisted by the Division Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, will proceed at once to a careful investigation as to the necessity for a pneumatic tube mail service or for extension of any existing service. isting service.

When the local committee is ready to When the local committee is ready to report a general committee of experienced postal officials, representing the department, will make a thorough review of the investigation and of the report, and the two committees will make a joint report to the department. The joint committee, in each case, will consult, and, if necessary, employ expert civil and mechanical engineers to assist in the work.
